

METU – TEKPOL is a Research Centre
established at Middle East Technical University in 1998 with aims of:

- Conducting interdisciplinary research on science and technology (S&T) policies and developmental issues,
- Providing research-based consultation for public and private institutions,
- Establishing a databank to monitor developments in and to compile statistical information on S&T fields,
- Encouraging having the newest technologies and development of technological capability of the society,
- Contributing to the formulation of S&T policies of the country and the dissemination of technological culture,
- Realising multifaceted collaboration in S&T and related subjects with national and international institutions and organisations.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Prof. Dr. Yakup KEPENEK, Director (Economics)

Prof. Dr. Bülent ERTAN, Assistant Director (Electrical and Electronic Engineering)

Prof. Dr. Ünal NALBANTOĞLU, Assistant Director (Sociology)

Prof. Dr. Metin GER (Civil Engineering)

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Emel AKÖZER (Architecture)