

Interests: plants; ecology; being, living, and working together with other species; education and its role in the way we relate to other-than-humans; culture and narratives as permeating our ways of being and relating in everyday life.